

Ksenija Curuvija Opacic, 1953. Graduate at the Medical Faculty University of Zagreb Croatia in 1977. Postgraduate study in biomedicine 1979-81 and ophthalmology 1983-4. Completed residency in ophthalmology at the University Hospital center Zagreb 1984.

Ophthalmologist in Institute of Public Health City of Zagreb and Ophthalmology Center Zagreb. After 14 years of public service, started with private contactology and ophthalmology practice in 1991.

Active participant in numerous ophthalmology and contactology meetings, founder and the Chairman of the Section of Contactology of Croatian Ophthalmological Society, national representative of Croatia in ECLSO, president of the Organizing Committee of the 36th ECLSO Congress in Dubrovnik Croatia 2006, and member of the American Society of Ophthalmologists-Contactologists (CLAO).