

Adriana Stanila, graduated medicine 1977 in Faculty of Medicine, Bucurest, Romania. Training in ophthalmology 1980 - 1983. Ph.D. in 1996. Since 1994 Chief of the ophthalmology department, Faculty of Medicine V. Papilian, ULB Sibiu, Romania. Professor of ophthalmology 2005, Master of public health Management 2006. Author of four books in ophthalmology, 53 scientific papers published in different medical reviews, 97 scientific papers presented at different scientific meetings, 64 participations at different scientific meetings, 21 educational courses, investigator in 3 multicenter research studies. Member of the Romanian Society for Ophthalmology, Romanian Society for Cataract and Refractive Surgery , Founding Member of the Romanian Association for Ocular Ultrasonography and Romanian Contact Lens Society – RCLSO. President of RCLSO, organizer of the Annual National Conference of the RCLSO. Member of the Romanian Glaucoma Society, Romanian Society for Ophthalmopediatrics, German Society for Ophthalmology and European Society for Contact Lenses