

Assoc. Professor Christina N Grupcheva MD, PhD, FEBO is a contact lens and anterior segment specialist from Varna, Bulgaria. She has more than 70 peer reviewed publications and clinical texts on various anterior segment subjects. Currently her principle interests are vision, quality of life and patient satisfaction after optical and surgical refractive correction.

Gerald H. Bohme, born in 1949. Graduate at the Medical University in Hannover 1974. German Board exam in ophthalmology 1980.

Since 1981 ophthalmologist in private practice in Backnang, main focuses on pediatric ophthalmology, laser therapy, and contact lens fitting.

Doctoral thesis (inaugural dissertation) at the University Eye Hospital Würzburg in 1997.

In 2001 become chairman of the Contact Lens Department and member of the Extended Executive Board and the Tariff Department of the BVA.

Since 2002 national representative of Germany in the ECLSO. From 2003 to 2007 member of the Executive Board of the BVA.