

Joseph GEINOZ, born in 1939, graduate from the Lausanne Medical Faculty in 1967.
Resident at the University Hospital of Lausanne in ophthalmology from 1969 to 1973.
Senior registrar at the University Hospital of Lausanne from 1973 to 1977.
Trainee at the Moorfield's Eye Hospital of London for 6 months in 1975.
Founder of a contactology department at the University Hospital of Lausanne in 1975 and of of a refractive surgery department in 1992, acted as a consultant and teacher in both departments until 2004. Ophthalmologist in his own private practice from 1978 until 1999.
Retired since 2004, but remains very active in the Contact Lens Commission of the Swiss Society of Ophthalmology. Author and co-author of over 30 professional papers.